Mrs. G. Elliott

Word has been received of the passing of a former area resident, Mrs. Gordon Elliott, 68, Portland, Oregon.

She was born Vivian Murphy in Lake County, Minnesota, on October 1, 1902, and died on June 13. January 2, 1937, she was united in marriage to Gordon Elliott of Columbia.

For the past 34 years she and her husband have lived in Portland. Before that time she taught for many years in the Columbia and Andover schools.

Her husband was born and raised in Columbia, but due to the lack of a high school in Columbia, graduated from Groton with the class of 1931.

While living in Portland, Mrs. Elliott has worked in an insurance company but retired a short time ago. Funeral services and burial were held in Portland on June 16. Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, Gordon, of Grants Pass, Oregon, several nieces and nephews.
